

Dr. Barron H. Harvey currently holds the prestigious position as Dean of the Howard University School of Business. He is also a tenured member of the faculty and has served as a full professor in the Department of Accounting for more than 15 years. During his academic career he has held numerous other administrative positions, including MBA Director, Departmental Chairperson, and Interim Dean. Additionally he held other faculty appointments at the University of Nebraska, University of Miami and Georgetown University. He has lectured in various areas of management education including, Organizational Behavior, Management, and Accounting.

Dr. Harvey has conducted over twenty (20) organizational development engagements. These consultancies included Team Building, Conflict Resolution, Process Re-engineering, Organizational Effectiveness, Role Analysis, Trust Building, and Organizational Change. These engagements have been with Private Sector and Government Organizations. In the area of Process Re-engineering Dr. Harvey has worked with the defense Logistics Agency, Social Security Administration (training) and Novcom one.

Dr. Harvey has held offices and memberships in numerous professional organizations including, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, American Assembly Collegiate School of Business, American Accounting Association, Administrators of Accounting Program Group, Accounting Educational Change Commission, National Association of Black Accountants, and D.C. Board of Accountancy. He is also founder of several organizations, including the Washington Consortium School of Business Research Forum and the African Venture Capital Association.

Dr. Harvey's scholarly works include more than 20 published articles and presentations, and he has been a main speaker at numerous local, regional, and national events. His most recent publication was in the HR Magazine entitled "Technology, Diversity and Work Culture-Key Trends in the Next Millennium." He is renowned business management training specialist, and has appeared on numerous television programs to discuss business issues and cultural diversity. He has also been interviewed by network television regarding major US business news. In 1981, Dr. Harvey founded Harvey & Company, a consulting firm that continues to provide management and financial services to domestic and international clients.

Dr. Harvey earned an MBA degree in Accounting in 1975 and a Ph.D. degree in Organizational Behavior and Management Theory in 1977, both degrees from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. He is a Certified Public Accountant, holding certifications with the District of Columbia and the State of Maryland. Currently, Dr. Harvey serves on numerous boards including as Chair of the HBCU Business Dean's Roundtable and as a board member of MDL Capital Management, Institute of Supply Management, The Washington Campus, Greater Southeast Health Care System, K.I.D.S. and Hope and A Future, Inc. He previously served as Chairman of the Board for the Fort Washington Hospital and was a member of the Research Committee of the Graduate Management Admission Council.